

Director's Report

March 9, 2021

Programs: All of the February Take It and Make It kits went out. We have 3 March kits left as of Monday morning. No one has signed up for the Exercise Snacks scholarships. Ten people attended the Kindred Winter Read discussion. Laugh Lines coming up March 16 and book discussion March 24. April programs include Julie Weston and Gerry Morrison talk about their book Magical Universe of the Ancients, Reading Challenge, and Kimchee/Sauerkraut workshop.

Continuing Education: Somerville is registered for BLOSSOM workshop (Building Life-long Opportunities for Strength, Self-Care, Outlook, Morale, and Mindfulness, a free virtual symposium for library staff focused on their health and wellness) March 24-26. Somerville is registered for Reimagining School Readiness webinar in May.

Display case: A community member has volunteered to display some Navajo artifacts. Somerville will remove current display soon.

The Idaho Commission for Libraries and State Parks and Rec are offering free state park passes for Summer Reading. We will do some kind of independent program as we have for the last 2 years. We will be receiving free books for summer reading giveaway from Scottish Rite.

We will be receiving pinwheels and a yard sign for display in April, Child Abuse Prevention month. The pinwheels represent what we want for every child, a healthy, happy, and carefree childhood.
