

Director's Report:

September 14, 2021

Programs:

- 11 of 12 Take It and Make It cocktail umbrella wreaths were picked up. Waiting on supplies for the September kit.
- Bear Aware program: 25 attended
- Book sale took in $619.00
- Book Club social: 5 people attended and chose the books for the upcoming season. We will try to meet in person at the library and go back to serving soup, bread, and dessert.
- The book discussion of Stranger Care was held in the courtyard. 6 attended in person, 3 via Zoom
- Author luncheon: 29 attendees $185.00 profit
- There are no programs planned for the rest of September

Only 1 person has picked up an application for the job opening, but has not returned it. We may have to consider filling it as a clerk only position.
